

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

GEN. LOUD HERE TONIGHT

Silver Tongued Orator of New York to Lecture at Soldiers' Home.

"STARS AND STRIPES" HIS THEME

Proceeds Will be Devoted to Purchasing Copies of Famous Painting from "Log Cabin to President" for Distribution Among Schools.

General George B. Loud, said to be one of the best orators in New York city, will deliver his famous lecture on the "Stars and Stripes" in the National Soldiers' Home theater tonight. General Loud comes here under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Virginia and North Carolina, and it is likely that he will be listened to by a large audience. He will reach Old Point this morning and during the day will be taken over the Peninsula by Colonel George Benson, who originated the idea to place a copy of the famous painting from "Log Cabin to President" in the schools of Virginia and North Carolina.

In order that the people in Hampton who may desire to hear the lecture may secure their seats, tickets having been placed on sale at the Johnson Pharmacy, while tickets will also be on sale at the box office in the theater today and tonight.

Quite a number of prominent out of town folks are expected here to attend the lecture. The members of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, and other Confederate organizations are expected to be in attendance.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS TO MEET LEAGUE BALL TEAM

Game on New Park Diamond This Afternoon Expected to be One of Most Exciting of Year.

The benefit game of baseball on New Park diamond this afternoon between the Hampton Peninsula league nine and the High school team is expected to prove of the most exciting contests of the year. Burbank will do the twirling for the High school and Straine will be on the firing line for the leaguers.

Here is the line-up of each nine:
High school—Powell, ss.; Wilson, lb.; Johnson, 2b.; Distel, 3b.; Rowe, cf.; Rucker, cf.; Betts, rf.; Brittingham, c.; Burbank, p.
Leaguers—Buchanan, ss.; Cunningham, lb.; Curtis, 2b.; Weymouth, lf.; Cook, cf.; Curtis, lf.; Balmer, 3b.; Hay, c.; Straine, p.

A thing of beauty is a joy, that's why our photo's are appreciated, come in and look them over, you will be convinced, CHEYNE'S Studio, Hampton.

REV. W. S. TRIMBLE BACK FROM GLOUCESTER COUNTY

Hampton Minister Attended Fall Meeting of Norfolk Presbytery—to Meet in Williamsburg.

Rev. W. S. Trimble, pastor of the Hampton Presbyterian church, has returned from Gloucester county, where he attended the fall session of the Norfolk Presbytery. The session was well attended, although the business considered was mostly routine.

Rev. Robert C. Gilmore, of Portsmouth, was elected the moderator for the coming year, with Mr. C. B. Whitney, of Newport News, as clerk.

The Presbytery accepted the invitation from the Williamsburg church to hold its spring meeting on April 19 in the ancient capital city.

Tomorrow morning Mr. Trimble will conduct the quarterly communion services in the Hampton Presbyterian church, while at night the services will begin at 7:30, instead of 8 o'clock.

PHOEBUS BAND MAKES BIG HIT AT SOCIAL

Tony Nicoletta's Musicians Feature of Enjoyable Session of Local Aerie of Eagles.

Tony Nicoletta and his Phoebus fire department band made a great hit at the social session given last night by Hampton Aerie of Eagles. The band rendered a good program and was liberally applauded.

The social session was one of those affairs that prove entertaining and enjoyable, but there was no set program. Mr. Charles W. Stanglen was a most capable master of ceremonies.

SHERIFF CURTIS ILL.

Taken From His Office to His Home in Newport News Avenue.

Sheriff Robert K. Curtis, who had been prevented from performing his duties in the Circuit Court for the past several days by illness, was yesterday morning removed from his office at the jail to his residence in Newport News avenue.

Last night it was said that the popular officer was quite sick. He is suffering with a complication of diseases.

Small Fire in Phoebus.

The Phoebus fire department was called to the Chesapeake & Ohio tracks, at the foot of Mallory street, yesterday afternoon by a blaze in an unoccupied building near the Phoebus Planing Mill. The fire was extinguished with little difficulty and the damage will likely amount to $50. The origin of the blaze is unknown.

JUDGE WADDILL CONFIRMS SALE OF WATER PLANT

Enters Order in the United States Court in Norfolk—Commissioners Allowed $350 Each.

Judge Edmund Waddell, Jr., of the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, has entered an order confirming the sale of the Peninsula Pure Water Company's plant here to Mr. J. Hector McNeill, of Philadelphia, who purchased the property for the bondholders.

Under the terms of the decree the purchase price is $35,000 which was the figure Mr. McNeill bid on the day the plant was sold under the hammer in Hampton.

The court ordered that Messrs. H. A. Lewis, W. C. L. Tallafiero, W. H. White, Jr., and J. A. Massie be paid the sum of $350 each as commissioners of the sale. The other allowances to the master of accounts and receivers will be made later by the court.

MR. TENNIS NAMED.

Prominent Phoebus Man Appointed Delegate to Farmers' Convention.

Mr. E. M. Tennis, president of the Bank of Phoebus and one of the most prominent business men in that place, has been named as a delegate to the American Farmers' National Conference by Governor Claude A. Swanson. The conference will be held in Raleigh, N. C., on November 5, 6 and 7, and Mr. Tennis expects to attend.

Besides being a banker and merchant, Mr. Tennis has also an extensive knowledge of farming.

Diminutive Farms.

The Portuguese are an extremely conservative people. Every man follows rigidly the methods employed by his father and forefather. In very many parts of the country the old wooden plows are still used.

When a man dies, instead of one of the heirs taking the whole property and paying the remaining heirs for their parts, the whole property is divided into as many parts as there are heirs. More than this, each separate part of the property is thus divided.

Thus, if a property consists of 10 acres of pasture land, 80 of vineyard, and 10 of grain land and there were ten heirs, each would receive one acre each of grain and pasture land and eight acres of vineyard. This process has been going on for a very long time, so that now in the most fertile part of Portugal the land is divided into incredibly small portions.

The immediate results of this, according to the United States consular reports, is that the product of the land is barely sufficient at best to sustain its owners. South of the river Tagus, on the other hand, there are enormous tracts of excellent land lying unused, but it has been found impossible to induce the farmers of the north to move into this region and take up large holdings.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
